

H.E. Mr. YIT Chandaroat

Deputy Director General of APSARA
National Authority

H.E. Mr. Chandaroat YIT, born in 1978, got his second master's degree in Tourism and Leisure Management from University of Corsica in France (www.universita.corsica) after his first Master of Management at Royal University of Laws and Economics. Since 2000, When he graduated a Bachelor of French Literature in Major of Teaching and Tourism from Royal University of Phnom Penh, he has immediately started to work for the APSARA National Authority (ANA) as a Tourist Observation Agent of Department of Angkor Tourism Development. He has promoted successively to Deputy of Department and then Acting Director of Cultural Development, Museums and Heritage Norms Department.

He is currently a Deputy Director-General of ANA in charge of Management and Development of Infrastructure, Landscape, Habitat, Community and Agriculture, and a part time Lecturer in Tourism Development and Hospitality at some private universities such as Paññāsāstra University of Cambodia, Build Bright University and University of South-East Asia. He has been, for ten years, a Chief of Secretariat of Directorate of Technical-Vocational Education and Training (D.T.V.E.T) and as well as a Technical Delegate of Ministry of Labour and Vocational Training for a Regional Project supported by the APEFE (Association pour la Promotion de l'Education et de la Formation à l'Etranger) and the OIF (Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie).

Over 20 years in his career, He gains some international trainings and professional experiences in Tourism, Museum, Historical Site Management and T.V.E.T. Development, from France, Belgium, Italy, USA, Senegal, Tunisia, Burkina Faso, and other countries in the region.