

Mr. TOUS Somanearth

Director of Department of Land Management,
Urban Heritage and Community

Mr. TOUS Somanearth was born in 1970 in Phnom Penh. He had got graduation with a Bachelor of Arts in Archeology from the Royal University of Fine Arts (RUFA) in 1997 in Phnom Penh.

In 2000, he passed to be an official in the Ministry of Culture and Fine Arts and then he was nominated as the technical staff of Social Research in Angkor World Heritage Site to work for Department of Culture, APSARA National Authority.

In 2004, he worked as a technical staff at the Department of Land and Habitat Management in Angkor Park. In 2011, he was selected as a Technical Committee Member of the APSARA-New Zealand Cooperative Project working for Community Development in the Angkor World Heritage Site.

In 2015, he had got a sub-degree appointing as a Deputy Director of Department as well as in charging as Acting Director of Department of Land and Habitat Management in Angkor Park, and most recently in August 2022, he was officially appointed as the Director of the Department of Land Management, Urban Heritage and Community, APSARA National Authority.

LinkedIn TOUS Somanearth

