

Mr. PHOEURN Sokhim

Director of Department of Water, Forestry and Infrastructure Management

Mr. Sokhim was born in 1982 in Battambang Province, he got the bachelor of Rural Engineering in 2008 in which he defended his thesis on the topic of Khmer Rouge Canal system, the project he was responsible during his training in Apsara National authority for three months.

After graduation at end of 2008, he joined Apsara National authority, working in Department of Water Management where he was responsible and involved in numerous projects such as North Baray project, Sras Srong, flood prevention, West Baray, Nzaid, short cut road of Koica, Angkor Thom research, water supply for West Baray and Angkor Thom, Water management in Siem Reap Region part 2, road construction from T5 to Borey Ratbal, canal and spillway of ACHA (Angkor Community Heritage and Economic Advancement) Project.

In July 2014, he was appointed as Deputy Director of department of Water Management of Apsara National Authority, Mr. Sokhim continued his work in the department by designing, supervising and oversee in different projects such as irrigation system in ACHA project, water gate on Preah Srok river and Tonle Snguot reservoir, bridges on Odamrei Slap canal.

In the meantime, he continued his study and finish his master degree of Engineering in Institute of Technology of Cambodia (ITC) and got his degree in 2019 after defending his thesis on the topic of Groundwater Study in Siem Reap-Angkor Region

In August 2022, he was honor to be nominated as Director of Department of Water, Forestry and Infrastructure Management of Apsara National Authority

LinkedIn PHOEURN Sokhim